

Business Analyst / Technical Consultant

Job Descriptions:

- Conduct business/technical requirements gathering sessions to produce Business Process Flow and Functional Requirement related documentation
- Analyze requirements to produce Solution and Technical Design related documentations
- Review current & future business process with clients to ensure the To-Be Business Processes are effectively mapped with Solution/Technical Design
- Effectively communicating with internal teams and external clients to deliver/implement the Software/System
- Hands on Software/System customization and configuration
- Prepare Test Plan/Test Script and support User Acceptance Testing
- Review and analyze data to prepare Data Mappings and handle Data Migration/Integration
- Provide end user trainings and system go-live supports

Required Skills/Experience:

- Computer Science/Engineering, Software Engineering, Information System or equivalent majors
- Strong consulting experience and communication skill
- Strong analytical and problem-solving skills
- Proven ability to design and optimize business processes and integrate business processes across disparate systems
- Creative, self-initiative, responsible and well-organized
- Good team player and able to work independently
- Understand the System Development Life Cycle and Software Development E2E process.
- Possess Salesforce, ServiceNow and Informatica working experience/knowledge is preferable
- Experience with system or cloud application development in Force.com, J2EE or .Net is preferable
- Experience with system design and relational database design is preferable
- Experience with data migration/integration is preferable
- Minimum 1 year of experience in IT related field is an advantage

Minimum 5 years experiences and have project management experience will be considered as Senior Business Analyst / Technical Consultant.